

REAL AMERICAN PRODUCTION.

Pink Lady Does Not Have to Depend on Stars to Make it Successful.

The Pink Lady has upset so many traditions of the stage and established so many new marks and records that to go over them even briefly seems to be superfluous. It is an epoch-making achievement in the American production of musical comedy.

These very things are what set it apart from the average and strangely enough made it the greatest success in this form of entertainment that has yet won the unstinted approval of the American public. First of all, it is an American production in every essential. It was given in this country without heraldy or puffery and won upon its distinctive merits. The book and lyrics were written by an American and the score was composed by a resident of London who got his early stage training with the famous Bostonians in this country.

When Messrs. McLellan and Caryll started in upon their first effort at collaboration they outlined a legitimate plan that had never been attempted in musical comedy on any stage. First of all they began with an adaptation of a French farce which had proven its worth as a straight comedy entertainment. Mr. McLellan fitted this story to its bigger usage. He knew construction and he made his appeal through the natural force of construction. The comedy lies in capricious contrived situations that are logical sequences of an accepted hypothesis and they possess all the appeal of spontaneity and bubbling humor. The lines are only funny when used in outlining the situations or leading up to them. Mr. Caryll here took up the same legitimate purpose for the music and wove into the thread of the story a score that accentuated its progressions.

Our old friend the spot light and the color atrocities of a pale moon breaking upon a sunlit field is no more in evidence than are those rare old friends of musical comedy the slap stick and the funny fall. This thorough, legitimate treatment is a hidden charm which relieves even the tired theatergoer.

In building upon this foundation John C. Fisher undertook the same artistic grasp of the production. Each scene is made doubly effective by the fact that it represents a color scheme in harmony with the story and its surroundings and even the grouping of the big chorus are handled with the sole idea of realizing an artistic blend in the picture. This taste and harmony of tone are an exquisite detail.

When the piece was flashed upon New York there was not a person in the east of any note, and yet the whole was so cleverly handled and the parts so "fat," as actors say, that the players in the scenes were soon better known than many stars. These are just a few things that have made The Pink Lady distinctive and the result shows that the public likes it. It will be seen at the Auditorium Saturday evening.

SOUTH NEWFANE.

Surprised Sister after Long Absence.

Henry H. Brown of Madison, Wis., surprised his sister, Mrs. Lyman G. Powers, last week when he walked in without previous announcement. With the exception of one brief visit 10 years ago Mrs. Powers had not seen her brother for 40 years, but recognized him almost immediately.

GREEN RIVER.

Luther Berge of Halifax, is painting the schoolhouse.

C. S. DeWolf and family of Deerfield came for a short stay at their farm the first of the week.

There will be another ball game between the West Guilford and Green River teams Saturday, Aug. 30, on Whitney flat.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson of Barnardston, and Mowry Lynde of Deerfield spent the week-end at Gallup's Hill Top farm.

Warren G. Wheeler of Dedham, Mass., is having a 10 days' vacation from his duties with the Massachusetts Historical society, Boylston street, Boston, and is the guest of H. E. White.

John Thompson and bride, who was Miss Lena E. Reed, a former Guilford girl, were guests of Miss Persia Thompson several days. They were accompanied by Mr. Thompson's sister, Mrs. Sarah Franklin of Gill. They returned to their home in Greenfield Monday afternoon.

H. E. White met with an accident Monday afternoon while on his way to Brattleboro to meet a train. Near the residence of Samuel Boyden the king bolt to his buggy broke, throwing him to the ground. The horse ran with the front wheels attached, passing the Jacksonville stage, the No. 3 mail carrier, and finally stopped in E. P. Evans's yard. Mr. White escaped with only a few bruises.

Sunday, Aug. 17. The reds, the losing side, gave a supper Friday evening to the blues, the winning side. There were present from Bellows Falls Pastor Sweet and daughter, Rev. Mrs. Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Northrup. Each of the men made appropriate remarks and two solos were sung by Mrs. Northrup, making an entertainment which was much enjoyed by all. A fine supper was served, consisting of salads, assorted cake, ice cream and coffee.
